Committee on Academic Programs (CAP)
February 21, 2017

Present: Adam Stone, Alice Pierce, Andrew Cohen, Becky Ellis, Brian Thoms, Carrie Manning, Chara Bohan, Chip Ryan, Deborah Manson, Jared Poley, John Medlock, Joseph Hacker, Kathryn McClymond, Laura Fredrick, Lisa Armistead, Lynda Goodfellow, Mary Ann Romski, Mary Beth Walker, Michael Brandley, Michael Stewart, Michael Weeks, Michelle Brattain, Sally Robertson, Shelby Frost, Stuart Noel, Timothy Denning

Guest: Patricia Gregg, Office of Institutional Effectiveness; Ryan Carlin, Department of Political Science

Call to Order
Michelle Brattain called the meeting to order at 3:00 p.m. in Room 2150, 25 Park Place

Approval of Minutes
The minutes of January 17, 2017 meeting were approved as distributed.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve a new Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) concentration in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE)
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new BIS concentration in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics within the College of Arts and Sciences, Department of Philosophy. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve a new minor in Communication Sciences and Disorders
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussions to approve a new minor in Communication Sciences and Disorders within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education, and Communication Disorders. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve an Interdisciplinary Minor in Human Rights and Democracy
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussion to approve an Interdisciplinary Minor in Human Rights and Democracy within the College of Arts and Sciences, Global Studies Institute. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve a new Certificate of Language Ability
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a Certificate of Language Ability in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, and Spanish within the College of Arts and Sciences, Department of World Languages and Cultures. The committee unanimously approved the motion.
Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve a new concentration in English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new concentration in ESOL to the Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S.E.) with a major in Middle Level Education program within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Middle and Secondary Education. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve the request of decrease credit hours of Bachelor of Science in Education, Health and Physical Education program
Shelby Frost presented the motion and led the discussion to approve the request of decrease credit hours of Bachelor of Science in Education, Health and Physical Education program within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Kinesiology and Health. Joyce Many elaborated on the motion. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve a new Certificate in Sign Language Interpreting Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new Certificate in Sign Language Interpreting within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education and Communication Disorders. Joyce Many elaborated on the motion. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve a new concentration in Urban Spaces and Geography to the Ph.D. in Sociology program
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new concentration in Urban Spaces and Geography to the Ph.D. in Sociology program within the College of Arts and Sciences, Department of Sociology. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve a new Bachelor of Science/Juris Doctor Dual Degree program with collaboration between Georgia Institute of Technology and Georgia State University
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new Bachelor of Science/Juris Doctor Dual Degree program with collaboration between Georgia Institute of Technology and Georgia State University. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Undergraduate Council to approve a new concentration in Dual Language Immersion to the Masters of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.), English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Education program
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve a new concentration in Dual Language Immersion to the Masters of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.), English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Education program within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Middle and Secondary Education. Joyce Many elaborated on the motion. The committee unanimously approved the motion.
Motion from Graduate Council to approve the termination of the Educationist Specialist (Ed.S.) in Early Childhood Education
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve the termination of the Educationist Specialist (Ed.S.) in Early Childhood Education within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve the degree designation and title change of the Master of Education (M.Ed.) with a major in Early Childhood Education – Urban Accelerated Certification and Master’s Program (UACM) to Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) with a major in Elementary Education
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve the degree designation and title change of the Master of Education (M.Ed.) with a major in Early Childhood Education – Urban Accelerated Certification and Master’s Program (UACM) to Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) with a major in Elementary Education. Joyce Many elaborated on the motion. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve new concentrations in STEM, Dual Language Immersion, and English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) to the Master of Education in Elementary Education program
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve new concentrations in STEM, Dual Language Immersion, and English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) to the Master of Education in Elementary Education program within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from Graduate Council to approve the revision of two concentrations: Intellectual Disabilities and Autism Spectrum Disorders will be combined to form one concentration titled Adapted Curriculum in the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) with a major in Special Education program.
Chara Bohn presented the motion and led the discussion to approve the revision of two concentrations: Intellectual Disabilities and Autism Spectrum Disorders will be combined to form one concentration titled Adapted Curriculum in the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) with a major in Special Education program within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education, and Communication Disorders. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Motion from the Graduate Council to approve a new concentration in Communication Sciences and Disorders to the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) with a Major in Educational Psychology
Chara Bohn presented the motion to led the discussion to approve a new concentration in Communication Sciences and Disorders to the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) with a Major in Educational Psychology within the College of Education and Human Development, Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education and Communication Disorders. The committee unanimously approved the motion.
Motion from the Graduate Council to approve a new Certificate in Advanced Language and Literacy Science in the College of Arts and Sciences and College of Education and Human Development
Chara Bohn presented the motion to led the discussion to approve a new Certificate in Advanced Language and Literacy Science in the College of Arts and Sciences and College of Education and Human Development. Mary Ann Romski elaborated on the motion. The committee unanimously approved the motion.

Presentation on new QEP
Patricia Gregg presented the new QEP to the committee.

The meeting adjourned at 4:00 p.m.